

Cycle Insurance Policy Wording

(Annual)

1 April 2019 to 31 March 2020 - v1

Your Journey
Our World

Thank you for choosing cycle insurance from the ETA.

We might not have a household name, but as Britain’s most ethical breakdown company, we find other ways to stand out from the crowd.

Whenever you buy your cycle insurance, home insurance, travel insurance, breakdown cover or mobility scooter insurance, you make possible our campaigns to promote sustainable transport. And with your help, we’ve been busy.

Over the last 12 months, we hosted over 50 cycling roadshows to encourage people onto bikes and started work on a documentary about road danger.

The year ahead promise many more exciting projects including a pedal-powered parklet designed to help folk in urban areas to reclaim road space. If you would like to keep up to date with all our campaigns and projects, make sure you are signed up to receive our weekly email newsletter.

On behalf of our team, I welcome you to the ETA and wish you many miles of happy cycling this year.

Andrew Davis

We reserve the right to withdraw and cancel insurances if you fail to pay premiums or installments of premiums on demand, or fail within seven days of a written request from us, to provide any documentation or information required by us. In the event of our cancelling a policy after its beginning or its renewal, our fees or commission will not be returnable.

This may result in your policy being cancelled from the date you originally took it out and we will be entitled to keep the premium. # What should I do if I am involved in a road traffic collision?

Be safe

Get yourself out of the road and to a footpath or kerbside or somewhere safe if you can. If you're unable to move, ensure you're visible and try to attract help from passers-by.

Call the police and ambulance

Always contact the police and call an ambulance if you are injured. The police can help with exchange of details and their reports could prove crucial. Get the details of the attending police officer and an incident reference number.

Exchange details

You must exchange personal and insurance details after a collision. You may not have insurance cover, but all motor vehicles on a public road should do. Get names and addresses, vehicle registration number as well as make, model and colour.

Get witnesses

Get details of any independent witnesses as well as the driver of the vehicle that hit you. If you can't do this yourself, ask a passer-by for help. If the vehicle that hit you didn't stop, still get witness statements as you can claim via the Motor Insurer's Bureau (MIB) who will pay out if the accident was a 'hit and run' or the driver cannot be traced.

Get photographic evidence

Take photos (ideally time and date stamped) on your phone of the vehicles and the scene (distances from junctions, road markings or signs) precisely as the accident happened. Don't let the driver of the vehicle that hit you move it before you take photos. Ask the police if there is CCTV footage showing your collision. If you have a helmet cam, video from that can also be used as evidence.

Put everything down on paper

When you can, write a full account of the accident and draw a sketch plan. It's always worth asking for a copy of the police reports too.

Get checked out by your GP

No matter how minor your injuries may seem, always visit your GP and get checked over at the earliest possible opportunity.

Keep all receipts

Keep receipts/bills/estimates for the cost of repair/replacement to your bike, clothing, helmet and accessories and the damaged bits of your bike. Keep records of costs you've incurred for treatment, travel to medical appointments or lost earnings.

Call a solicitor

If the collision wasn't your fault, you may be entitled to compensation. As you have cycle insurance with the ETA, you have access to a legal helpline on 0345 389 1050
